

Meetings cover Danish immigration and history; use of Danish genealogy websites, books and other resources; research techniques; organization of materials; and travel to Denmark. Members have the opportunity to share their discoveries, discuss problems, and ask for input from the group in their quest to find Danish ancestors.

Membership Benefits include:

- Access to the Minnesota Genealogical Society Library with over 30,000 books, periodicals and other items to help researchers.
- Admittance to all NDAGS meetings and programs. Recent topics have included: the Danish census, military records, newspaper research, organizing data, writing creative family histories, among many others.
- Electronic (PDF) version of program handouts.
- Subscription to "The Beech Tree" quarterly e-newsletter which is filled with genealogy tips, Danish recipes, basic Danish language tips, and upcoming events.

The National Danish-American Genealogical Society began in 1982. It is a branch of the Minnesota Genealogical Society and is also affiliated with the Danish American Center.

Meetings of the National Danish-American Genealogy Society are held every 4th Monday of the month, except for the months of May (3rd Monday), August and December (no meeting) at 7:00 pm. The usual meeting place is at the Danish American Center, 3030 West River Parkway S., Minneapolis, MN 55406.

The purpose of the group is to:

- Provide an organization that people interested in Danish genealogy and family history may join no matter where they live.
- Exchange ideas and information related to genealogical research and methodology. Our network of members ranges from seasoned research veterans to individuals just getting started on their genealogical journey.
- Provide instruction on topics of interest to members. Learn from fellow members as well as certified genealogy experts.
- Encourage research and writing of family, emigration, immigration and settlement histories.

Not sure whether you want to join? Attend our next meeting as our guest!

But I don't live in the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area!

Even if you can't attend meetings, you will receive an electronic copy of each month's speaker's notes. Recent topics have included: the Danish census, military records, newspaper research beyond obituaries, organizing data, among many others. Visit our website www.danishgenealogy.org to view upcoming meeting topics.

You will also receive our quarterly e-newsletter "The Beech Tree," which is filled with more genealogy tips, Danish recipes, basic Danish language tips, and upcoming events. Of course, you are always free to submit questions and provide feedback!

Publication for Sale
